

CRIMINAL DEFENSE INVESTIGATOR POSITION

The Federal Public Defender for the Districts of South Dakota and North Dakota is accepting applications for an INVESTIGATOR in the Rapid City, South Dakota office. The Federal Public Defender's Office provides legal representation to indigent people charged with federal crimes. This is a full time position that will require travel in western South Dakota and work in rural remote settings, and on Indian reservations. Candidates should possess significant prior investigative experience, knowledge of investigation and interview techniques, general knowledge of criminal law and court procedures, and possess excellent written and verbal communication skills. Salary is negotiable based on qualifications and experience. Compensation includes federal employee benefits. Qualified applicants should send a cover letter, resume, and three references by October 14th, 2011 to: Neil Fulton, Federal Public Defender, P.O. Box 1258, Pierre, SD 57501 or via e-mail to: neil_fulton@fd.org. The selected candidate will be subject to a background check as a condition of employment. Equal opportunity employer.